Please join us in welcoming Jim Complak to the school as our new principal.

Jim is originally from Toronto, Ontario. He began his teaching career in Kingston and Oakville and has been an administrator in Kingston, Oakville, Ottawa and Fairview, Alberta. Jim is familiar with the Yukon after working as the Education Manager for Trondek Hwechin. He is pleased to be back in the Yukon and is looking forward to this new experience as Principal of Elijah Smith Elementary School. Jim is here with his wife Mary Anne and they have two grown children, Andrew and Kathleen, who are presently living in Calgary.

Grace Cromarty shows off her SWAG dress like your favorite treat outfit. Keep checking the newsletter and your School Calendar for the next SWAG event, December is full of school spirit events. Points are awarded for participation so get in the spirit and show off your stuff.

Winter is upon us and we would like to remind everyone that your children need to come to school with full winter gear and to have a conversation with them to wear their gear at all times when outside for breaks, lunch and coming and going from the school. Snow pants, hat, gloves, scarf and jackets please.
